AMARA JENSEN IS LOSING IT!

Life is great. Very good in fact....Great job, great family, great friends, bareable bank balance. But something is missing...Enter the guidance of psychiatrist; Dr. Valentine. With his help will she be able to grapple an understanding of herself in the ever changing modern world?

TALES OF A USED CAR SALESMAN

Be entertained by a seasoned Used Car Salesman. Drew will take you on a thrilling ride of real life stories of reckless driving, unsolicited advances, deceit and the plain old stupidity that can unfold in the world of sales.

LALA AND WEST DO 30 MINUTES

Settle in for a ride,
over a rock of pride
Giants up in the sky,
the flag of freedom is high
Bring your carpet or cow or inanimate towel
All that jazz plus your wife
We'll take you dancing through life!
Sold on the idea yet? Two gals. A stage. A whiteboard. . . and 30 minutes.
What more could you want? We're set to Disneyfy, Lloyd Webberfy, Sondheim-a-fy Schwartz-a-fy and REDEFINE what it means to have 30 minutes of Fab Nobian freedom on a stage when Lala and West do well, WHO KNOWS what they'll do! So strap yourself in for a hefty halfa of drama and laughter with two of Melbourne's best; Lala and West.

Amara Jensen Amara has appeared in a vast array of variety shows, concerts, plays, Theatre in Education and musicals since an early age. Her recent highlights include; Rona in 'Spelling Bee', Sister Chantelle in 'Bare', Joanne in 'RENT' (Guild Nominated) 'The Past 5 Years' (Lyrebird Nominated) and she won a Lyrebird Award for her performance in DTC's 'Songs for a New World'. Tonight's performance marks Amara's debut in the cabaret field and she would like to sincerely thank her close friends and family for their ongoing support. In particular, she would like to thank her singing teacher, Will Conyers, for his guidance, talent and support throughout this process, without who she would not be here tonight.

Drew Collet Drew is a seasoned performer, having appeared plays, musicals and voice work for over 10 years. Drew has trained extensively in voice, having been taught by David Rogers Smith, Susan-Anne Walker and currently, Sophie Thomas. He holds a Diploma of Music (jazz/popular) from Box Hill TAFE and, in 2004, trained at the VCA in music theatre. Performance highlights include Lee Harvey Oswald/The Balladeer in Assassins (UMMTA), Luke in Housewarming the Musical (Apollo Pro), Johnny Young/Spencer Davis in Normie the Musical (DSMAD) and most recently appeared as Benny in Rent (SLAMS).

Jess Barlow Jess is a trained pianist, singer, dancer, musical director, choreographer and actor (BAPA, Monash). Jess performed for Stephen Schwartz in the Australian Professional Premiere of Children of Eden (Magnormos). After playing Jeanie in Season 1 of Hair: Summer of Love, Jess began touring regional Victoria and Melbourne in Hair the Musical (StageArt) as Sheila. Jess was nominated four times by the MTGV for her portrayal of Millie Dillmount in 'Thoroughly Modern Millie', Hope Gladwell in 'Urinetown', Audrey in 'Little Shop of Horrors' and Julia Gulia in 'The Wedding Singer'. Jess also treads boards in Melbourne's Burlesque scene as the Harakuku inspired Lady Lala. She is currently starring as Maureen in Centrestage Geelong's July Season 'Rent'.

Katie Weston Over the past 15 years, Katie has featured extensively throughout Australia as a stage and sessional vocalist, performer and musician. Katie Weston is a tertiary trained singer and performer based in Melbourne specialising in all contemporary styles and musical theatre. Most recently, she played "Celisse" in a special performance of GODSPELL for Stephen Schwartz at the Recital Centre, Melbourne (Magnormos) and won a MTGV award for Best Lead Actress as Roxie Hart in CHICAGO (WMTG). As a composer, her original full-length musical Sugartown has been work-shopped in Sydney and Melbourne. Katie is a leading contemporary voice coach at various colleges around Melbourne and runs her own KWM: Vocal Studio, specialising in singer/actor vocal reels. www.katiwestonmusic.com.au
